ASSUMPTION OF RISK, CONDITIONS AND LIABILITY WAIVER FORM

This fee will apply towards your total trip price of the trek/tour and will get subtracted from the trek price. However, this varies from trek/tours in the region. All the Tibet trips are required to pay £500/$800 as a deposit up front and that is non-refundable.

For those who are planning to do their own trek and need information, we provide a travel consultation service for your trip for £100/$150 flat fee which must be paid in advance before we discuss each trek. Consultations provided by anyone representing Earthbound Expeditions Ltd are not liable for any trekking incidents that may occur while they are trekking independently.

Any costs such as flight cancellations, accommodations, food, lost or delayed baggage which are related to weather, personal errors, political disturbance and other unforeseen events are not covered in our advertised trekking/tour price thus each individual is liable to pay these costs out of their own pocket.

Deposit of 30% of the total amount is asked while booking and for Tibet £500/$800 is required to secure your trip which needs to be sent with your trek application.

It is your responsibility and up to you to have your personal health insurance and purchase travel insurance for this trip that covers most of the things like airline ticket cancellation refund, trip cancellation refund, airfare, baggage loss, accidents, emergency evacuation and rescue and other accidental travel costs.

Any unexpected accidents or events like plane crash, bus accident, theft/robbery, fall and injury, insect bites, rock fall, thunderstorm/lightning, individual health problem or natural disasters like landslide, flooding, avalanche and political disturbance in the country are not in Earthbound Expeditions Ltd or its Agents control, thus we are not responsible and liable for these situations. Trekking in the mountain is a challenging sport which requires a good physical health and good stamina and in altitude. It is a long hiking in a day-to-day basis on steep up hill and downhill trails, which is often on uneven terrains, or necessary riding in a horse or in animal back is at your own risk and Earthbound Expeditions Ltd is not responsible. The environment, food can be very different than what you are used to, Food are cooked as a local standard and most will be vegetarian served (religious tour strictly vegetarian) weather can change rapidly, can be cold, dusty, windy and hot which can cause altitude sickness, hypothermia, dehydration, slips, falls and other trekking related sicknesses. In case of individual's serious sickness or injury that requires an emergency service such as helicopter rescue and other means of transportation, you will be liable and responsible to pay all the expenses. However, Earthbound Expeditions Ltd and our agent in Nepal will make a strong effort and professional judgment to minimize all these risks.

It is your responsibility to have all the proper immunizations, vaccinations and be physically and mentally ready prior to the trip and during the trip. This would include consulting your physician, having a proper check-up, and getting medication for the appropriate trip agreed by Earthbound Expeditions Ltd.

I _____ here by state that I understand and am aware with the dangers, hazards and risks to trip in Nepal as mentioned above. I accept that these hazards and risks may result in personal injuries or even death. I accept and agree all the risks involved in this trip and my participation in this activity is purely voluntary and will not hold Earthbound Expeditions Ltd responsible and liable for such incidents mentioned above.
